1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

Before the commencement of each semester, University notifies an academic calendar for all the programs, which contains the date of commencement, last working day of the semester and dates for semester and examinations.

CBG Ag PG College follows the calendar issued by the University strictly and plans all its activities including the conduct of internal examinations. The academic calendar help faculty members to plan their respective course delivery, research work, academic and co-curricular activities.

Internal assessment tests, assignments and seminars are part of the internal evaluation of students. The principal, through the academic committee meetings, frequently reviews the semester's progress and provide suitable suggestions. In case of revision of academic calendar by the university, college incorporates the necessary changes accordingly.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Administration of our college is very helpful. The college administration has appointed Administrative officer, Coordinating officer, Academic advisor/mentor for U.G and P.G. students. Every mentor has a batch of 25 student who meant them and advise them for their career. Students are always free to meet their teachers for any of their academic query. Remedial coaching of different subject is available in our college for the purpose of different competitive examinations by well qualified teachers. This remedial coaching is free of cost .College teachers always help the students for their problems through offline or online mode both. At the time of corona,online classes were conducted through Zoom App and Google Meet App. Online examination was also conducted through Google form method.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

As per University rules the external/internal examination mechanism is followed in the college. The U.G. students in each semester, have to appear in the examination (written as well as project preparation and presentation) as for example in U.G. science out of 100 in each subject 20 marks are allotted for internal assesment, which are distributed as follows -

5 marks - allotted for attendance

5 marks -presentation

10 marks -project work

The mechanism is entirely transparent and evidence based. Like wise in U.G., P.G. Agriculture the midterms exam is through internal arrangement and carries 20 marks out of hundred based on syllabus taught by that time. The questions are framed by related teachers and evaluation is strictly very fair and transparent. It helps the students to prepare accordingly for final examination.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

Full prooftransparent system of internal assesment has been developed by the collegeaccording to the University instructions. It includes the attendance, project preparation, presentation and theoretical/objective type questions. The evaluation system by the teachers is very fair and transparent, even if there is any complaint, it goes to the examination cell. The evidence like answer book or a project may be shown to the students for their satisfaction. Although no such complaints were observed during the time .

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

Two different U.G. programmes are being offered -

1. B.Sc. AG (HONOURS ) which is eight six monthly semester programme. In the last semester it has RAWE which provide the opportunity to the students to interactwith the farmersin the rural area and collecting data under the supervision of the mentor (college teacher). The students also submit the detailedreport for evaluation and viva -voce examination by the examiners.

2. B.Sc. (Science) - is available with Z.B.C or P.C.M. combination which is six monthly six semester programme. Students are prepared in science subjects for the opportunities as teachers/ variousresearch areas and competitive exams.

College also offered P.G. Programmes in M.Sc (Ag) in four subjects -M.Sc.Ag. (agronomy), M.Sc. Ag. (Horticulture), M.Sc.Ag. (Soil science & Agril Chemistry), M.Sc Ag.(Agril. Extension). Each subject has six monthly four semester programme. Every student is allotted a research experiment under subject related teacher to conduct it at college farm. They collect the literature make experimental plans under the supervision of teacher, conduct the experimental trial and finally submit thesis for the evaluation and viva voce examination in last semester.

During U.G. and P.G. courses time to time study materials are uploaded on the college website for student use. Various curricular activities are held in the college for the personality development of the student as for example N.S.S. camp, annual sports, yoga classes, Gym practice, cultural programme (Debates, essay writing, quiz etc.)

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Presently U.G. and P.G. in agriculture and U.G. in science programme are in operation in college. The main advantage for the U.G passout is their eligibility and enhanced efficiency in various state /central departments .As the college trained them for competitive courses (General English, General knowledge and computer skill). It has also been noticed that itself in U.P.state government - Agriculture/horticulture as pretty good number of students are selected.

The U.G. passout also take opportunity to join different M.Sc. Ag. Course in different subjects which are available in the college, the P.G. passout are eligible for Ph.D. programme in different University. Others qualifying NET for Assistant professorship.

3.2 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.2.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

The college has adopted practical approach to keep the students at par with the latest in their respective fields of study. For transfer of knowledge in COVID pandemic, the virtual programs were conducted during the period.

- One of the seminar halls is equipped with LCD projector to facilitate the students and teachers for presentation of lecture, credit-seminar including innovative idea.
- During RAWE programme the UG students go in the villages in groups for about two months to identify the problem of farmers and resolve their problem by developing innovative techniques through case studies. Students are also taken to crop fields of the college Farm for in depth study of crop-production system.
- College has developed a kind of system in which it organizes Kisan Goshthi, and Kisan Mela every year to transfer the Agricultural technology/ innovative ideas among the farmers.

- Some village women are also trained every year by providing platform of training on various skilled development programs like Fruit Preservation, Pickle making, Bee-keeping, Mushroom Culture, Goat rearing, Vermiculture etc. for improving their livelihoods.
- The students are taken to education tours to visit industries and various ICAR and CSIR institutes and SAU's to have insight of the working system of these institutions.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

The students are sensitized to the social issues and holistic development in the neighbourhood villages during RAWE and NSS programmes. These extension activities influence the students in understanding the problems of the rural people of the state, policies of the government or the societies, and their perception and impact on human life. The students participated in various community development programs to develop their all-round personality. College has adopted nearby villages under NSS Scheme. Extension activities during COVID-19 pandemic were carried out through virtual platform. The NSS (National Service Scheme) conducts annual camp in the neighboring adopted villages for 7 days which helps them to mingle with the village and rural people to understand their lifestyles and needs better. Planting of trees inside the campus as well as in the adopted neighborhood villages, Free medical camps, Blood donation camps, Environment awareness camps, Swachchh Bharath Abhiyan, Awareness rallies on aids, Anti- Liquor, Anti-Tobacco.

Impact & Sensitization:

Exposure to extension and outreach activities sensitize the students towards social issues and also to legal and social remedies for matters like domestic violence, dowry, child abuse, beggars, female child, victims of violence, old and infirm, refugees and displaced persons etc. The activities conducted lead imbining the values of social responsibility to help farmers/ people in need and distress.

The skills developed include social skills communication skills, management skills, leadership skills, analytic skills, perceptual skills etc.

4.2 - Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1 - Library is automated using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS)

Response:

The need for the preservation and dissemination of information led to the establishment of more and more libraries. Thus libraries acquired a great importance in the civilized society for education and research. Libraries play a vital role in the development of any society by enhancing the cause of education and academic research. They cater to the information needs of thousands of peoples. The college has a rich library with all the prescribed, recommended and reference books as per the university norms. The library has sufficient books to satisfy the academic needs of the students.

- The total number of books available in the library is 11983.
- To kindle the interest among the students with regards to current affairs and general knowledge, the library has subscribed for more than 26 magazines and newspapers. Outlook, Yojana, Indian Farming, Cronical, India Today, Front Line alive to name a few.
- Research has always been one of the missions of the faculty. To encourage the students and faculty to extend their horizons in writing research articles the library has subscribed for 14 research journals that will help both the faculty and the students to have access to more knowledge on the relevant subjects.

Apart from the above resources, the library also has a stock of the 51 reports of the innovative projects work of the PG students of the College.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

College has taken several measures to enhance safety & security on campuses by constituting Grievance Redressal Cell (GRC) , installing CCTV cameras & by providing round the clock security. Counselling is provided to the complainants and the respondents independently by the GRC. GRC meets on need basis to address any complaints from students, teaching and non-teaching members and takes necessary action. The students approach the Cell to voice their grievances regarding academic and non academic matters. The cell redresses the grievances at individual and class level and grievances of common interest. Complaints are scrutinized by the management and the grievance redressal cell. Hod/Principal regularly attends to these on daily basis. The college assures students that once a complaint is made, it will be treated with confidentiality.

College also organised training programmes, seminars, workshops etc. on gender equity and sensitization.

Measures initiated by the college for the promotion of gender equity during year:

1. Separate NSS unit is started exclusively to encourage the girl students and the unit is successfully conducting various activities to serve the society.

2. The health centre is provided on the campus with a qualified physician with a separate medical room.

3. Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao Jan Aandolan Rally

4. Celebrations of International Women's Day

5. Mission Shakti Programme

College has followed proper mechanism of solid, liquid and E-waste management. Fifty per cent of solid wastes are collected by Nagar Panchayat (through door to door collection) and another 50 per cent of solid wastes (shrub & tree residues, grasses, crop residues and cow and Buffalo dung) are used for manure like composting, vermi-composting and FYM. Liquid wastes are discharge into soak pit.

E-Waste: Electronic products nearing the end of their "useful life" are termed as "E-waste". Examples include discarded computer monitors, motherboards, cathode ray tubes, televisions, VCRs, stereos, Printed Circuit Boards (PCB), mobile phones and chargers, CDs, headphones, Liquid Crystal Displays (LCDs)/ plasma televisions, air conditioners, refrigerators and so on. In India, computer equipment accounts for major fraction of e-waste material.

College maintains all its computer peripherals and takes pride that it has been actively involved in recycling. Paper, metals, plastics and glass are recycled. Printer cartridges are collected separate waste streams and disposed to authorized recyclers.
